

Describe the differences between Linux and Windows (or MacOS) based on your own experience with them so far.

Linux	Windows
Open source	Closed Source
Secure	Less secure
More efficient	Less efficient
Kernel	OS
Free of cost	Costly
File system is case sensitive	File system is not case sensitive
Hardly any PC's use Linux (only 2 percent)	Majority of PC's in the world use Windows
Less Compatible with other software	More compatible with other software
Linux files are ordered in tree structure	Windows files are stored in folders on different data drives

How many sign boards did you see on your way to Paradise: 3